New or old Jail. Court Finances, Turnpikes.

The Court of Claims a month or six weeks ago advertised for plans and specifications for a new jail, and the court committee, the Court met, a full bench being present, and those in favor of a new jail, the Court adopted the new jail proposition, and immediately proceeded to examine the plans submitted for the improvement. Six plans were submitted, each of them with a full statement by an architect. With one exception, all of them gave their opinion against expending anything upon the old jail, as it would be better for the court to erect a new one, as it would be the best for the county. One architect had the old jail, and had examined it carefully and had experience in prisons, some of them representing steel cage manufacturers, who did nothing but erect jails.

After a careful examination by the Court, they decided to adopt plans and specifications, and without a dissenting voice, either in committee or in Court, the plan of McDonald & Bros., of Louisville, was selected. The Court had not examined the specifications of each, and proposed to adjourn, a committee was selected to make such changes and alterations in these as they saw proper. After the adjournment of the Court, a communication appeared in the Capital, of this city, signed by the County Judge taking good against the plan of the new jail, as it was, by every architect, save one, condemned, and some of them positively refused to even make a plan for the improvement of the old jail. He first assailed the court for giving the committee authority to change anything, and stated that the plan of the new jail would cost the county more than $25,000. It had its effect in doing one thing if none other. Bids were opened on Monday last, and the following are the prices named by each contractor:

McDonald Bros, new jail, without	$16,540.00
McDonald Bros, new jail, with privilege of using old material	$14,647.00
Less 2 1/2 per cent, from each bid.
Mike Buckley, new jail, with privilege of using old jail material	$13,531.20
Halcy Bros, new jail, with privilege of using old jail	$12,967.00
W. S. Clark, new jail, with privilege of using old jail material	$17,700.00

It will be seen from the above that his Honor is a poor judge of the cost of building a jail. The highest bid being $17,700.00 and the lowest $12,967.00, a little more than half the stated price.

All of the bids were rejected. Citizens of the county were present, and some of them made speeches against the new jail on the ground that the County, was in such a poor financial condition, as to be unable to pay for it. There are questions important and necessary to a tax ridden county where warrants are below par, and where tax for county purpose alone is now 1/4 cent on the dollar. In my next I will discuss the amount of revenue paid by each district in the county, based on the assessment of 1885.

If you want the freshest of the early vegetables at the lowest prices, go and see Mr. H. J. Hyde at the Market House corner. He keeps everything in the green grocery line and is selling his stock at figures far below those of any other house in the city.

Otis W. Snyder, the Lexington jeweler, is one of the most enterprising men in Central Kentucky, and is doing a large business in his line.

He keeps constantly on hand a full line of jewelry and silverware, which he is selling at the lowest prices.

The commencement exercises of Eminence College will take place at Helm Hall, in that place, on Wednesday afternoon and evening. During the exercises Mrs. W. L. Collins, of this county, a graduate of the college, will read an original poem.

The graves of the Confederate soldiers in the cemetery will be decorated this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

It is requested that flowers be sent to the cemetery at that hour by all those who have prepared them for the occasion.

Let the contributions be liberal.

Mr. Chas. W. Saffell, who for the past two years has been Deputy Post Master at this place, has resigned his position and will, after Monday, devote his entire attention to his garden farm and dairy.

Mr. Full Taylor has been appointed to a clerkship in the office to supply the vacancy.

Several young men got on a time in South Frankfort a few days ago, and running across a couple from the country who were sweet on each other,

one of the party represented that he was authorized to solemnize the rites of matrimony, and married the young people. Under the impression that the marriage was legal,

the parties have since been living together. The authorities heard of the matter yesterday and arrested the rogue magistrate or preacher and his associates.

This county appropriates a larger sum to turnpikes than most any other county. Yet her turnpikes are narrow, winding and narrow. No one seems to care to them, and no attention is given to them, except at the time when officers are to be elected. This is caused by the officers having free travel over the roads and the appointment of gate keepers, no officials, no regular police officers, poor management. This is the result. Would it be wise to sell all the county's interest in turnpikes? Would it be best to make them free? Would it be advisable to change the scheme and let the people vote, and appropriate money for the same in place of the County Court, similar to a school tax in districts? This latter plan may be best of all; and at the same time, would be best to those who receive the benefits of the turnpike, so far it may be applicable.

Pres. C. L. Loos, of Kentucky University, will preach at the Christian Church to-morrow night at 8 o'clock. Go and hear this eloquent man.

Little Howard Rodman, son of Mr. Thos. Rodman, Jr., while playing ball on Thursday, fell and cut his knee so very badly on a piece of bottle that he has to use crutches to get about.

In our last issue, for want of space, we failed to give an account of the public installation of the officers of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar, which took place at the Opera House on Thursday evening of last week.

At eight o'clock the Grand Officers entered the hall, escorted by Maysville Commandery, No. 10, headed by the Maysville Band, and took seats on the stage. After music by the choir and reading of the scriptures and prayer by Rev. Sir G. C. Kelly, the installation ceremonies were conducted in elegant style by Very Eminient Sir W. LaRue Thomas, of Lexington, Grand Senior Warden of the Grand Encampment of the United States, assisted by Past Grand Commander Wm. Ryan, of Louisville, as Grand Marshal, and were very beautiful indeed. The ceremony was something new and different from that heretofore used, being interspersed with beautiful vocal music, which was furnished by Prof. Wayland Graham, who presided at the organ, and Misses Belle and Nellie Sanders, Lydia Crutcher, Lyda Graham and Messrs. S. C. Bull and W. H. Averill, and appropriate passages of scripture were read by Rev. Sir G. C. Kelly.

When Grand Commander Saffell was presented for installation the audience applauded, and kept it up as each officer came up in turn, but when Sir J. W. Pruet, the Grand Junior Warden, faced the installing officer he was given a regular ovation by his friends in the audience. The old veteran, Sir L. D. Croninger, when he was presented to be installed for the fourteenth time as Grand Recorder, was also remembered by the audience, and the smile that he bestowed on the boys as he raised his chapeau was something immense.

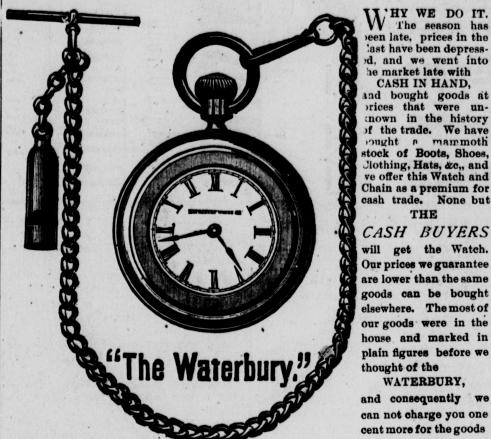

At the conclusion of the audience, at the invitation of Sir Thomas, rose and joined the choir in singing the Long Meter Doxology, and were dismissed with benediction by Rev. Sir Kelly.

FRANKFORT, MAY 30, 1885.

Messrs. M. H. Cromwell and Moses Hayden, of the Jett Station neighborhood, were returning home from this city Saturday afternoon, and as they were going down the hill just this side the Old Depot, one of the shafts dropped out of the clip that holds it to the axle, fell on the horse's heels and frightened him so that he ran away. Mr. Hayden was thrown out when the horse began to run and had his ankle badly sprained, but Mr. Cromwell held on to the reins and tried to stop him, and was thrown out by the buggy upsetting and was badly bruised up. Fortunately both escaped without any broken bones. The horse ran into a vehicle driven by a little son of Mr. Sam South's, who was thrown out and badly bruised up, and both vehicles demolished.

Base Ball.

The Frankfort Club will return Monday from their northern trip and will play a game that afternoon at Capital Park with the Springfield nine, one of the strongest teams in the Inter-State League. The Frankforts have been greatly strengthened since their last game here, although they have been playing in hard luck since they left home. Bellman, the new catcher, is one of the best in this section, and Mr. F. E. Wood, editor of the Erie (Penn.) Sunday Graphic, telegraphs that McLaughlin, the new pitcher, is the best in the Inter-State League, so a first rate contest may be expected Monday.

The games this week, so far as heard from, are as follows: At Erie, Pennsylvania, Monday: Erie 11, Frankfort 3. On Tuesday, at same place: Erie 8, Frankfort 4.

At Dayton, Ohio, Wednesday, the game was prevented by rain. Thursday, Dayton 9, Frankfort 5.

Death of Mr. John Quarles.

Mr. John M. Quarles, an old and highly respected citizen of this county, died on Saturday, May 23d, at the residence of his brother, Mr. Ambrose Quarles, near the mouth of Elkhorn, after a lingering illness with cancer, in the 7th year of his age. He was a clever, kind-hearted gentleman, who was always ready to extend a helping hand to the needy, never turned a deaf ear to the cry of distress, and was universally popular with all who knew him. For nearly three quarters of a century he had lived in the house where he was born, greatly beloved by all his neighbors, among whom he had always endeavored to adjust all differences that might arise, and bring about a reconciliation between estranged parties. In 1874 he was elected Assessor of the county and held the position for four years, discharging the duties of the office promptly and faithfully.

The funeral took place at the old homestead and was attended by about five hundred of his neighbors and friends, and the remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground.

Personal.

Mr. J. M. Saffell left yesterday for a visit to Cincinnati.

Mr. Philip D. Arnold, of this city, is visiting friends in Anderson county.

TO WATER CONSUMERS.

LORTONVILLE, Ky., May 19th, 1885.

THE NEW WATER SERVICE PIPES NOW being laid in this city, are in many cases placed a depth under the surface of sidewalks or ground, both on streets and private property, than eighteen (18) inches. Long experience in this city has shown that the pipes under the ground are not safe against frost. When laid at a depth of three or three and a half feet under the ground, the pipes are safe.

For this reason, acting in the interest of both the water company and the public department, we hereby give that water will not be supplied on services laid at a shallower depth than three feet under the ground, and that the water company will not be liable for any damage to property or persons from the trouble in store for them, by the acts of plumbers who locate hydrants and other fixtures for drawing water from the pipes, and by the acts of the Water Company's Rule No. 3, on page 2 of its Rules and Regulations.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

The regular annual June meeting will be held at Little Flock Church near Alton, Anderson county, by the congregation of Particular Baptists that worship at that place. The meetings are usually very largely attended and if the weather is good there will be an immense congregation there to-morrow morning.

Mrs. John A. Huldeiman, nee Miss Lollie Ryan, of Louisville, daughter of Wm. Ryan, Esq., a young lady who has many friends in this city, died at her home in Louisville Friday of pneumonia.

The annual jug breaking by the members of the Mission Band of the Christian Church took place Wednesday evening in the presence of a large congregation. The exercises were very interesting and the contents of the 35 jugs broken amounted to $130. There are still four jugs to be sent in.

Miss Stella E. Gober, of this city, and Mr. F. J. Northington, a well-to-do young farmer of Christian county, will be married by Rev. George Darsie at the Christian Church Tuesday morning, at 8 o'clock. They will leave on the 8:10 train for their future home near Hopkinsville.

The June number of the Southern Biroc, the first number issued by the new publishers, Messrs. B. F. Avery & Sons, and edited by Gen. B. W. Duke and Mr. R. W. Knott, has been received and is brim full of very interesting reading matter. Among other articles there is an account of the escape of Gen. John H. Morgan from the Ohio Penitentiary, by Judge Thos. H. Hines, who accompanied him; "West Point before the War," by Major J. M. Wright; "Hood's Tennessee Campaign," by Major D. W. Sanders; "A Winter Raid," by Major Wm. J. Davis, and numerous other articles equally as interesting. The magazine is for sale by the news dealers in the city, where they can be procured for 20 cents per copy.

Jett.

Miss Nonie Nicol visited Oak Dale last week.

Miss Lee Hawkins is visiting Excelsior Institute.

J. R. Shaw was in Louisville on business this week.

Mrs. Thos. P. Hearn visited her relatives here this week.

There is a great complaint about the worms destroying the young corn crop; some farmers are planting over.

The saw-mill has arrived and been put in position. Mr. Trabue says he will build two barns 60x60 and a mile high, for tobacco.

There was quite a nice little fishing party given last Tuesday at the creek opposite Mr. H. C. Hargrave's under the full ministrations of Charlie and Rob and their accomplished sister, Miss Emma. Parties from Franklin and Woodford enjoyed themselves heartily.

From the Corporal.

From the Marine Barns, Pensacola, Florida. Mr. B. F. Bitter writes of the benefits of Brown's Iron Bitters in that malarious region. He says: "I have used several bottles and must say I am greatly benefited by using it." Several of my comrades use Brown's Iron Bitters, and you may rest assured they all think it is the best thing on earth. This kind of testimony comes from all quarters concerning Brown's Iron Bitters—the best tonic.

Antioch.

Crops of all kinds except wheat are doing well. Mr. and Mrs. Newt Hales were over last Sunday visiting relatives.

Miss Edna Chambers, after six weeks' absence in Louisville, returned home last Saturday.

Mr. James Brawner is building an addition to his dwelling, Mr. James Morris, the Painter, contractor.

Mr. James Glazier visited his daughter, Mrs. Kate Shackelford, at Winchester, last Saturday and returned last Monday.

We agree with "Cedars Run" about selling the county offices; it would create a handsome revenue for the county.

Henry Spalding is determined to be not only the boss gardener but the horse chicken raiser. In this section H. yard is fairly alive with them.

The school in the Lewis district was closed yesterday (the 29th) by Thos. Hunter, who after a short rest will be ready for the tug of war again.

We regret to hear of the illness of our friend Charles Quire, of Bald Knob, and hope he will soon be able to return to his profession again.

We will put our neighborhood against any in the county for pretty girls and sparkling boys, and if the Benson and Cedar Run girls would keep their boys at home, our boys would have a better show.

Our cattle dealers draw it pretty fine on a trade sometimes. We understand that Mr. Greenberry Gambo let twenty-five cents back him out on a trade of an old muley cow the other day.

A certain young friend of ours went to see his girl last Sunday evening without his parents. His wife did not hit his horse, and when he got home, lo! his horse could not be found and he had to foot it home, a distance of two miles or more and return the next morning on the hint of his wife. "A fool may sometimes give advice that the wise would do well to consider."

Bridgeport.

Mr. J. H. Bailey is in Cincinnati. Mr. Churchill Bailey remains about as when we last reported.

Those who depend on their daily labor for a support find it difficult to obtain employment, owing perhaps to the financial depression that seems to be prevailing over the country at this time.

The regular meetings of New South Benson church, in order to suit the convenience of the pastor, have been changed from 1st Sunday and Saturday before to 2d Sunday and Saturday before in each month.

Within a radius of two miles, taking Bridgeport as centre, there are over 2000 houses with an average attendance of about 75 each Sabbath, being about 6 per cent. of the whole population.

How strange that people living in facility for the advancement of gospel knowledge with such infinite interest in matters pertaining to their soul's eternal welfare, teaching their children by example and precept that there is no reality in the Christian religion—that the matter of religion is all a myth.

We doubt not that there are children, and grown up people, too, for that matter, who have never attended a Sunday-school, who have never attended a Sunday-school.
